

AFSPC Eligibility Requirements

Eligible Healthcare Providers (as outlined in AR 616-110) must be:

1. U.S. Uniformed Services (USA, USN, USAF, USCG, USPHS) or Active, Reserve, and National Guard
U.S. Department of Defense (DOD) Civilians or Allied National Medical Officers
2. A physician (either D.O. or M.D.) or Physician's Assistant or Senior Medical Student (4th year) in one of the AMEDD acquisition programs or HPSP, USUHS, ROTC
Selected Nurse Practitioners, Optometrists, and Audiologists
3. Rank of O-1 through O-6
4. In possession of a SECRET security clearance
5. Able to meet aeromedical qualification standards set by respective service:

U.S. Army:

- Physicians, PA's and Medical Students: Current Class 2 flight physical qualified by USAAMA at Ft Rucker
- Selected Nurse Practitioners, Optometrists, and Audiologists: Current Class 3 flight physical qualified by your local flight surgeon

Note 1: Any applicant requiring a waiver for a disqualifying condition must have an Aeromedical Summary (AMS) approved by USAAMA before departing for the course

Note 2: All AC physicians and all medical students must have 18 months of service obligation following graduation and agree to serve a utilization tour in aviation medicine for 18 months

DOD Civilians: Current Class 3 flight physical qualified by your local flight surgeon

USAF, USN, USCG, and Allied Nationals: Current and valid upslip from your Respective service